

200 Attend Dance at Vincent Astor's Home in Newport

Large Dinner Party Precedes First Entertainment of Season at Beachwood.

Special to THE SUN and NEW YORK HERALD. NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 4.—Beachwood, the villa of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Astor, was the scene this evening of the first entertainment of the year by Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Suffolk Hunt Meet at Breese Cottage in Southampton

Members and Guests Are Entertained at the Orchard at Tea.

Special to THE SUN and NEW YORK HERALD. SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., Sept. 4.—Always attractive, the Orchard, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Breese's estate, was made more so this afternoon by the meet there of the Suffolk Hunt, held on the lawn. The hunt, in pink coats, with the Colonial house and fine old trees in the background, made an engaging picture. Before the start Mr. and Mrs. Breese entertained the members and some of their friends at tea on the lawn.

Mr. Richard Newton, Jr., was master of the hunt, and among those riding were Miss Mary Hoyt Wiborg and her guest, Miss Harriet B. Pratt, Messrs. Herbert L. Pratt, Jr.; Sidney W. Fish, Francis Newton, Col. C. J. Stuckey, and Mrs. N. J. Hoes. Miss Newbold and Mr. John Pell. The run was toward Shinnecock and the finish was at the Edgewood farm.

Among others at the tea, most of whom followed the hunt in motors, were Mrs. Henry E. Cox, Sir Arthur and Lady Pease, Messrs. James C. Parrish, De Forest Grant, Madison Grant, Norman Henderson, Mrs. William A. Burton, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Snow, Mr. Thomas B. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hirt, Mrs. William Lewis Rice, Mr. Philip Rindelman, who is her guest; Col. Robert M. Thompson, Count Edward Zichy, Miss Elaine Sullivan, Miss Juliana Cutting, Miss Zella de Milhau, Mr. Laetion Fox, Mrs. Stuart Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Zwick, Mr. Henry R. Stewart, Mr. J. T. Terry, Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. duPont, Mr. Francis H. Marlowe, Miss Eleanor Leroy Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Chaffield-Taylor, Mrs. Francis Newton and Miss Virginia Rice.

Visitors for the holiday include Mr. William Rindelman Stewart, who is with his daughter, Princess de Braganza, on their way to Europe, and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Chaffield-Taylor, who are in the Meadow Club house, Mr. James G. Lawrence and Miss Eleanor Le Roy Lawrence are at the Irving House, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Waller and Mr. Henry R. Sedgwick are with Mrs. Robert Waller. Mr. Charles B. Alexander arrived today and joined Mrs. Alexander at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Winthrop H. Alrich, in Water Mill. Mr. Charles Hayden is with Mr. and Mrs. Rufus L. Patterson, who gave a dinner for him to-night.

There was the usual large gathering at the Meadow Club to-night for the weekly dance. One of the dinners there was given by Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Dana, whose guests were Mr. and Mrs. William A. Burton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Hirt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Hirt, Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Dickinson, Mrs. Glendora Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. S. Cochrane, Mr. Alexander D. B. Pratt and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis G. Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Norris's Daughter is Lieutenant Alevra's Bride.

Special to THE SUN and NEW YORK HERALD. NARRAGANSETT, Sept. 4.—Miss Dorothy Norris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Norris of New York and Philadelphia, was married to Lieut. Raoul Alevra of Bucharest, Rumania, at the Lodge, the Norris villa on the cliffs here to-day. It was as the bride expressed it, "a simple country wedding," with no formal invitations issued, but a good sized company of Newport, Philadelphia, Washington and New York friends attended the ceremony and the dance that followed. From New York alone about a score of guests came and were quartered at the Imperial and Massasolet hotels.

The ceremony was performed on the veranda facing the ocean in a bower of blue hydrangeas and pink dahlias and was witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. Alevra, who carried a large bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley. The bride's sister, Miss Alma Clarke, was her maid of honor.

Little Agnes McGee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McGee of New York, was flower girl, and Master Leonard M. Thomas, Jr., of Philadelphia, acted as ring bearer. He wore a white sailor suit.

The Rev. Latta Griswold, rector of Trinity Church, was assisted in the single ring service by Capt. Frank Thompson, senior chaplain, United States navy, who was in the uniform of his rank. Mr. Remington, best friend of the bride, was in the uniform of his rank. Mr. Thompson, senior chaplain, United States navy, who was in the uniform of his rank. Mr. Remington, best friend of the bride, was in the uniform of his rank.

Mr. and Mrs. John Russell Pope of New York are at the Shoreham for several days.

Lieut. Commander and Mrs. John E. Heathman, who spent last week at the Waldman Park Hotel, have returned to their home in Texas.

Col. and Mrs. William J. Glasgow, formerly of Fort Leavenworth, Kan., are making their home in Washington.

Mr. William A. Hill is spending the holidays at Atlantic City. Mr. Hill, who is passing the summer in Maine, will return at the end of the month.

Mr. H. Bradley Davidson, Sr., has returned from a visit to his family at their summer home at Nonquitt, Mass.

Mrs. Hooker Gives Ball. Entertains for Daughters at Home in Rockledge.

Special to THE SUN and NEW YORK HERALD. GREENWICH, Conn., Sept. 4.—Mrs. Elion Hooker gave a fancy dress ball for her three daughters, the Misses Barbara, Edna and Helen, at her home in Rockledge last evening. There were about seventy-five young friends of the Misses Hooker present, all of whom attended in masquerade costumes. A supper was served at midnight and the Japanese lanterns were strung about the lawn, leading down to the swimming pool, where there is an open stone fireplace. Around this the young people gathered during the evening.

Among those present were Albert Hooker and Wolcott Hooker of Niagara, N. Y.; Eric Hedstrom and Miss Fernie Ott Bull of Pittsburgh; the Misses Kingsbury, Mrs. Hyde, Elizabeth Hyde, Eleanor and Winifred, Mr. Marjorie and Edna Hastwick, Elizabeth Lanier and Katherine Lanier, and Messrs. Lumford and Hamilton, and Bruce Hyndman, Richard Croft and Leland S. Stillman.

Miss Witherspoon To Be Married. Announcement has been made by Mrs. Charles Sumner Witherspoon of New York of the engagement of her daughter, Miss Isabel Witherspoon, to Mr. Richard Witherspoon, a son of the late Dean Hole of Rockledge, England. Miss Witherspoon is a great-granddaughter of John Witherspoon, one of the signers of the Declaration and sixth president of Princeton. Her father was a missionary and preacher. Miss Witherspoon was in Red Cross work during the war. Mr. Hole is in the military service in this city. He is a member of the Society of the Friends of the United States and is expected to take place late in October.

Miss De La Batard to Wed. Mrs. Louis G. de La Batard of 200 West 109th street has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Marguerite de La Batard, to Mr. Rafael J. Garcia de La Batard, a son of the late Rafael J. Garcia de La Batard, who was a member of the U. S. Field Artillery. He is a graduate of the University of California and a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

Miss Pettit to Wed Sept. 23. Miss Gail Jean Pettit and Mr. Donald Sheldon Rogers will be married September 23 in All Saints' Church. Miss Pettit is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Pettit. Her father is president of the Realty Company of America. Mr. Rogers, an alumnus of Williams College, is a son of Mr. Edward S. Rogers, of Miranda, and of the late John and Louisa Rogers of Lee, Mass. The wedding reception will be in the Hotel Marlborough.

Brother Weds Baltimore Girl. Special to THE SUN and NEW YORK HERALD. GREENWICH, Conn., Sept. 4.—Miss Eleanor Rockwell of Baltimore, Md., and Mr. Dwight Jeffrey Smith of New York, were married to-day at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Rockwell, at 100 West 10th st.

Special to THE SUN and NEW YORK HERALD. NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 4.—Beachwood, the villa of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Astor, was the scene this evening of the first entertainment of the year by Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

ROMANIAN OFFICER MARRIES MISS NORRIS AT NARRAGANSETT

Special to THE SUN and NEW YORK HERALD. NARRAGANSETT, Sept. 4.—Miss Dorothy Norris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Norris of New York and Philadelphia, was married to Lieut. Raoul Alevra of Bucharest, Rumania, at the Lodge, the Norris villa on the cliffs here to-day. It was as the bride expressed it, "a simple country wedding," with no formal invitations issued, but a good sized company of Newport, Philadelphia, Washington and New York friends attended the ceremony and the dance that followed. From New York alone about a score of guests came and were quartered at the Imperial and Massasolet hotels.

The ceremony was performed on the veranda facing the ocean in a bower of blue hydrangeas and pink dahlias and was witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. Alevra, who carried a large bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley. The bride's sister, Miss Alma Clarke, was her maid of honor.

Little Agnes McGee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McGee of New York, was flower girl, and Master Leonard M. Thomas, Jr., of Philadelphia, acted as ring bearer. He wore a white sailor suit.

The Rev. Latta Griswold, rector of Trinity Church, was assisted in the single ring service by Capt. Frank Thompson, senior chaplain, United States navy, who was in the uniform of his rank. Mr. Remington, best friend of the bride, was in the uniform of his rank. Mr. Thompson, senior chaplain, United States navy, who was in the uniform of his rank. Mr. Remington, best friend of the bride, was in the uniform of his rank.

Mr. and Mrs. John Russell Pope of New York are at the Shoreham for several days.

Lieut. Commander and Mrs. John E. Heathman, who spent last week at the Waldman Park Hotel, have returned to their home in Texas.

Col. and Mrs. William J. Glasgow, formerly of Fort Leavenworth, Kan., are making their home in Washington.

Mr. William A. Hill is spending the holidays at Atlantic City. Mr. Hill, who is passing the summer in Maine, will return at the end of the month.

Mr. H. Bradley Davidson, Sr., has returned from a visit to his family at their summer home at Nonquitt, Mass.

Mrs. Hooker Gives Ball. Entertains for Daughters at Home in Rockledge.

Special to THE SUN and NEW YORK HERALD. GREENWICH, Conn., Sept. 4.—Mrs. Elion Hooker gave a fancy dress ball for her three daughters, the Misses Barbara, Edna and Helen, at her home in Rockledge last evening. There were about seventy-five young friends of the Misses Hooker present, all of whom attended in masquerade costumes. A supper was served at midnight and the Japanese lanterns were strung about the lawn, leading down to the swimming pool, where there is an open stone fireplace. Around this the young people gathered during the evening.

Among those present were Albert Hooker and Wolcott Hooker of Niagara, N. Y.; Eric Hedstrom and Miss Fernie Ott Bull of Pittsburgh; the Misses Kingsbury, Mrs. Hyde, Elizabeth Hyde, Eleanor and Winifred, Mr. Marjorie and Edna Hastwick, Elizabeth Lanier and Katherine Lanier, and Messrs. Lumford and Hamilton, and Bruce Hyndman, Richard Croft and Leland S. Stillman.

Miss Witherspoon To Be Married. Announcement has been made by Mrs. Charles Sumner Witherspoon of New York of the engagement of her daughter, Miss Isabel Witherspoon, to Mr. Richard Witherspoon, a son of the late Dean Hole of Rockledge, England. Miss Witherspoon is a great-granddaughter of John Witherspoon, one of the signers of the Declaration and sixth president of Princeton. Her father was a missionary and preacher. Miss Witherspoon was in Red Cross work during the war. Mr. Hole is in the military service in this city. He is a member of the Society of the Friends of the United States and is expected to take place late in October.

Miss De La Batard to Wed. Mrs. Louis G. de La Batard of 200 West 109th street has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Marguerite de La Batard, to Mr. Rafael J. Garcia de La Batard, a son of the late Rafael J. Garcia de La Batard, who was a member of the U. S. Field Artillery. He is a graduate of the University of California and a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

Miss Pettit to Wed Sept. 23. Miss Gail Jean Pettit and Mr. Donald Sheldon Rogers will be married September 23 in All Saints' Church. Miss Pettit is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Pettit. Her father is president of the Realty Company of America. Mr. Rogers, an alumnus of Williams College, is a son of Mr. Edward S. Rogers, of Miranda, and of the late John and Louisa Rogers of Lee, Mass. The wedding reception will be in the Hotel Marlborough.

Brother Weds Baltimore Girl. Special to THE SUN and NEW YORK HERALD. GREENWICH, Conn., Sept. 4.—Miss Eleanor Rockwell of Baltimore, Md., and Mr. Dwight Jeffrey Smith of New York, were married to-day at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Rockwell, at 100 West 10th st.

Special to THE SUN and NEW YORK HERALD. NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 4.—Beachwood, the villa of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Astor, was the scene this evening of the first entertainment of the year by Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

Guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Astor, who gave a dinner for more than 200 of the younger set. There were thirty guests for dinner preceding the dance. The Italian Ambassador, Baron Romano Avenza, and the Baroness Romana also gave a dinner at the beachwood villa in Shepherd's avenue and joined the party later at Beachwood.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

New York.

Mrs. Dorothy Griggs, only daughter of 154 East Seventy-third street, will be married to Mr. Francis King Murray, son of Prof. and Mrs. A. L. Murray of Palo Alto, Cal., on Saturday, September 11, at Irvington. A reception will follow at Barberies, the country home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Tower, who have returned from their wedding trip, have gone to the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, her parents, at Westbury, L. I.

Mrs. James Henry Barker has gone from the Marlborough-Blenheim, in Atlantic City, where she passed the summer, to the Long Island Country Club, in Eastport, for this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Whitridge have gone to Canada to remain a fortnight.

Mr. Percy R. Pyne Jr. and Mrs. Mose Taylor Pyne, at Bar Harbor, Me., has returned to Roslyn, L. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Orme Wilson, after an absence of nearly a year, are due from Europe to-day on board the Imperator.

Mrs. Cyril Hatch will arrive from Europe to-day on board the France and will go to the home of her mother, Mrs. William H. Vanderbilt, 660 Fifth avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Barton Webb have gone to Lenox, Mass., to be the guests of Mrs. William Douglas Sloane over Labor Day.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Franklin went yesterday to North Bennington, Vt., from Cold Spring Harbor, L. I., to be the guests of her mother, Mrs. Frederic H. Jennings.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sloane, who were the guests of her mother, Mrs. George A. Crocker, in Southampton, L. I., have gone to their home in Mount Kisco, N. Y.

Miss Mary Parsons, who has been engaged in the work of the Red Cross in New York for several weeks, will this week to Lenox, Mass., and join her sister, Miss Gertrude Parsons.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene S. Willard have returned to Locust Valley, L. I., from the Adirondacks.

Washington.